Dear Sir/ Madam,

Christmas blessings!

Our sincere gratitude and heartfelt thanks reach out to you for your love, generosity and support towards our ministry among the needy for the past years. As Christmas approaches, we ask you to remember us and our vulnerable during the season. Take time to reflect on the blessings that can bring joy to all, especially the less fortunate write to you to consider making a donation to support our works among the vulnerable people.

Missionaries of the poor is a catholic international missionary order of the brothers and priests dedicated exclusively to the service of the least of our brothers and sisters such as the homeless, elderly, and children with multiple disabilities who would otherwise not have a proper home and care. We offer all our services freely in caring for the poorest and neediest in our society. We live in a community, share all things in common, and follow a common spirituality and charisma- that provide free service to the least of our brothers and sisters. We have two special residential homes, good shepherd home for female in Mengo- Kisenyi, housing 75 residents and Bethlehem home for male housing 106 residents. In addition to this we do have a Christmas children's party on December 228th on the feast of holy innocents where we host 5000 children.

In ministering to the vulnerable services, we completely rely on divine providence. We do not get any salary not get any salary nor do we change any of our clients. We depend on charitable donations (in kind and monetary
