28th April, 2023

To all Parents / Guardians,

RE: END OF TERM I HEAD TEACHER'S COMMUNICATION.

Calvary greetings from management, staff and children. We do thank God that He has enabled us to complete this term I successfully.

We are really grateful and purely humbled by your unconditional and priceless love that you have always shown to us each day that passes. We owe sincere thanks to God, please continue with that spirit.

Today 28th April, 2023 has marked the end of term I and all our children who are debt free have come home with their reports. Please take time and go through those reports with your dear children and see how far he / she has started the new class and new academic year.

The summary of the performance is as follows.

Class	Grade one	Grade two	Grade three	Grade x (absent)	Total
P1	82	09	-	-	91
P2	121	05	01	-	127
P3	104	13	02	01	120
P4	50	22	2	-	74
P5	64	26	01	-	91
P6	49	17	01	-	67
P7	38	20	06	01	65

Nursery children have also settled down and most of them are doing very well. Top class children are trying to master reading as a key to good performance. Middle and Babies are also on the right truck. We hope that a few that are still behind will come up next term God being our Guide. We sincerely thank the teachers for the work well done.

Discipline: We still thank God, our children are well behaved a few that need some caution copy those vices from televisions and films. Please watch out the types of programmes they watch at home.

Smartness: Our children have taken the lead in smartness. We thank you for caring. Please let's keep our children smart. Uniforms are available at school, let's avoid funny casual wears like jumpers, old T-shirts, short dresses etc since they tend to divert our learners.

Prefects: We do congratulate the newly elected prefects and thank you for encouraging them to start leadership journey at this stage. Leadership comes from God, please keep on encouraging them to serve. Their uniforms are available as earlier informed. Please send the money.
